DAYTONA, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1917

15 CENTS A WEEK, DELIVERED

U. S. IS MAKING EVERY PREPARATION

TO COOPERATE WITH THE ALLIES IN EVENT OF WAR

NEUTRALITY TO OFFER MEDICATION BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Administration officials hear that neutral nations are contemplating mediation to prevent war between the United States and Germany. They frankly regard such an effort as another effort, backed by the United States, to divide sentiment in Congress and across the president. The administration is not authorized to consider mediation or for discussion unless Germany abandons her campaign against the United States. Meanwhile the army is carrying forward every preparation for eventualities. The navy is preparing for instant mobilization. Congress declares war. The president plans on 250,000 regular militia and 500,000 volunteers. The United States is preparing for an independent struggle to cooperate with the allies.

PROSECUTORS GET TWO YEARS AND FINE

NEW YORK, March 22.—Albert O. Brown and Charles N. Wunnenberg, pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of having sent spies to England to get military information for Germany, was sentenced today to two years in the Atlanta penitentiary and a $2,500 each.

PARTY ENJOYED TRIP UP THE TOMOKA RIVER

Through the kindness and courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. W. Nickerson, of Miami, Me., tourists to Daytona, who enjoyed the beautiful launch of Ernest J. Mill, for a cruise up the Tomoka river, it was a jolly party who went aboard the launch Sunday morning, the party including Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Stevenson, all of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, of Chicago, Ill.; Miss Isabelle Griffin, of Tallahassee, Fla.; Mrs. Bolles, Mrs. Keach and Miss Amelia Hitch, of Daytona.

The trip was a most enjoyable one as the day was perfect and the scenery all along the way beautiful. Among the many attractions was now and then an alligator, plunging into the water while others posed upon the banks in the sunshine. Eatables and dainties too numerous to mention were furnished by all of the party. On the return home they were accompanied by a boat in distress. Capt. Miller, who is ever ready to help others, kindly attached a rope to his own launch and towed them safely into port. The passengers aboard the launch were guests of the Nickerson and Despland.

GERMAN PRINCE FAILS TO RETURN FROM RAID

BERLIN, March 22.—It is officially announced that the airplane piloted by Prince Friedrich Karl, the cousin of Emperor William, has not returned from the raid between Arras and Peronne.

SPAIN IS TO INSURE SPANISH COMMERCE

MADRID, March 22.—King Alfonso will sign a decree Friday providing for insuring the safety of Spanish maritime commerce. The measure will be in accordance with the procedure followed by other neutral nations.

LOSES SECOND BROTHER WITHIN PAST FEW WEEKS

Mrs. L. M. Waite received a telegram last night informing her of the death in Cincinnati, Ohio, of her brother, Charles Jacobs. This is the second brother Mrs. Waite has lost within the past few weeks and she will have the deep sympathy of her many friends in the double bereavement.

Chief of Police T. O. Milton, who had been ill at his home on Baker street for a week or longer, was taken to Jacksonville this morning to enter Dr. Cary P. Rogers' hospital for an examination and treatment. Mrs. Milton accompanied her husband, as did also Judge Henry T. Titus and B. B. Hart, the trip being made in the former's car. Messrs. Titus and Hart will return this evening. Mr. Milton has suffered more or less from stomach trouble for a number of years and is now experiencing an unusually severe attack.

Dinner guests noted yesterday at Schmidt's hotel were Arthur Whitney, of New York City, and John Thompson also of New York.

"DID YOU HEAR"

That Jimmie's Aunt Jane would be at the Daytona Theater tomorrow night at 8:15. Benefit of the Daytona High School.

Break away from those apron strings for awhile and free your top flat from care and worry. The Glee Club will be there and I gather it that they are some "Tooters."

FISH COMMISSIONER LEAVES ON SEA FOAM

T. R. Hodges, Florida State Shell Fish commissioner, was a Daytona visitor from Wednesday until this afternoon when he left on board the Sea Foam for a cruise to St. Augustine, Fernandina, Jacksonville and up the St. Johns to Palatka. Mr. Hodges had just completed an inspection trip on the gulf coast before joining the Sea Foam here for the trip to the St. Johns river.

Mr. Hodges has many friends here, as well as elsewhere in the state, who view with regret his retirement from office, July 17th, when he will be succeeded by J. G. Williams, of Gainesville, who has been appointed to the position by Governor Catts.

GERMANY PREPARING FOR BIG OFFENSIVE IN RUSSIA

RUSSIA TO ABOLISH CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

PETROGRAD, March 22.—A. F. Kerensky, the new minister of justice, in an interview with the Associated Press, decried all rumors of discord between the workingmen and soldiers and the new government. He is a member of the radical workingmen's party and said that his appointment is the best pledge of harmony. Among the reforms, he said, will be the abolishment of capital punishment.

EXPORTS FOR FEBRUARY REDUCED ABOUT A THIRD

The curtain will rise at 8:15 and the interesting story of college life will cover about two hours' time. The story tells of the adventures of Jimmie Cavenish, who gets into trouble while up to college pranks. When interviewed by the disciplinarians of the school, Jimmie tells them that he was with his aunt on the night of his alleged misbehavior. The aunt, who is rich, has previously announced her intention of endowing the college and is much respected by the college officials. However, they insist on proving Jimmie's alibi by seeing the aunt. Jimmie gets a friend to impersonate the aunt and by accident also secures the services of another friend in the same capacity. The plot thickens and containing the character of the landlady's pretty niece and the "College Widow," finally culminates at the Thanksgiving football game when the real Aunt Jane makes her appearance.

SPIRITED FIGHTING NOW IN PROGRESS

The Russian statement also describes fighting on that front which may prove the opening of the German offensive in Russia. Russia says that southeast of Vienna the Germans gained considerable ground but later were driven out. Germany speaks of the attack as a raid in force. Germany also announces the revival of activity on the Rumanian front.

Germany reports spirited fighting in the section over which the Germans have been retreating, but mentions no additional evacuation of territory. French attacking on north of Alsace have been repulsed. French in contact with the main German army, and what may prove the initial stage of the great battle of history opened before La Fere. Berlin press dispatches say that both sides are using cavalry and this is taken to indicate a real battle in open prospect.

Germany announces the revival of activity on the Russian front, with the capture of Russian trenches and prisoners.

The French announce that the Germans made an energetic resistance last night between the Somme and Aisne rivers, but after spirited fighting north of Tergnier the French forced the Germans out of several strong positions and the French occupied a number of villages. The French have already liberated 853 square miles of French territory.

GERMAN RETREAT IS CLAIMED A SUCCESS

BERLIN, March 22.—Major Morant, a military writer in the Lokal Anzeiger, calls the German retreat on the western front a success. He outlines the result of shortening the line, thus saving men and requiring the Entente to bring forward heavy guns. He says the Entente may reproach the Germans for doing there what the Russians did in Poland, but that France should settle accounts with England for the damage as the law of German warfare is that everything necessary and possible will be done in this defensive war.

FISHING GOOD ENOUGH FOR GRAHAM AND HILL

R. L. Graham, winter resident of Daytona Beach who left this week with his family for his home at Lima, Ohio, stated he had been very successful with his fishing while here. Since January 1st, he caught over 700 sea trout and a few sea bass, all with rod and reel.

Mr. Graham's fishing partner, Mr. Hall, also of Lima, and a regular winter resident here, had almost as good luck, catching only a few less than Mr. Graham. They state that 1,000 trout will be their mark for next winter.

"THE GIRL PHILIPPA"

Perhaps if the thousands of readers of the Robert W. Chambers story, "The Girl Philippa," which ran in the Cosmopolitan and in book form, had been asked what motion picture star they would choose to play the title role of "Philippa," there would have been much hesitancy, for the role is very complex and difficult.

The readers would have racked their brains trying to think of the dainty star who could act the cashier in the cabaret, yet bespeak the lady. They would puzzle over who could best portray the whimsical little lady, utterly ignorant of conventionalities.

However, with everything given due consideration, it is quite probable that dainty Anita Stewart of the Vitaphone would have eventually been chosen.

And wise the choice would have been, too, as she herself will prove by her wonderful characterization of the title role of the girl Philippa in the special eight-part Vitaphone feature, which comes to the New Daytona the first half of next week.

"PANTHEA"

Norma Talmadge, who reached the heights of filmdom with the Vitaphone and Triangle companies, will make her first appearance as a Selznick-Pictures star at the Crystal theatre today, in an adaptation of the noted drama "Panthea" by Moneckton Hoffe. This is the play in which Mme. Olga Petrova starred so successfully on the American stage several seasons ago and which created a furore throughout Europe, being claimed one of the strongest dramas of the age. It was chosen as Miss Talmadge's first vehicle under her new management, as the title role affords the beautiful and talented young player the greatest opportunity of her career for emotional acting.

Expected at the Ridgewood on Friday are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor, of Watertown, N. Y., who have been patrons of this hostelry in former years. The Taylors, who have been spending most of the winter at Palm Beach, are very charming people, and are both finished equestrians, always bringing with them their favorite saddle horses to enjoy, the more, their sojourn in the southland.

Gate Attracts Attention.

Visitors to San Saba, Tex., usually pause before one house in a quiet street, where there is a most unusual gate. A carriage wheel, which just fits between the rough posts on either side, comprises the major part of the framework, while, above and below, pickets are nailed to complete the gate. The structure is strong and is adapted to its use, while at the same time it is quite the most distinctive among ornamental gates in the city.—Popular Mechanics.

EDITOR ED MALONE WRITES WATERFORD POST OF DAYTONA

The following is an extract from an article written to the Waterford Post, of Waterford, Wis., by its editor, Ed Malone, of Malone & Miller, publishers, who styles himself "The Old Man" of the Post, and who is a member of a pleasant party located at 31 Orange avenue:

"Daytona, Fla., March 7, 1917.
"Dear Post: Pursuant to promise made to the office force to send them some copy from the southland your 'old man' sends a few 'observations' more lengthy than he usually supplies and all concerning his new surroundings. While still playing the part of an invalid he confesses a new grasp on life and health and with it a necessity of keeping above promise. The following rambling remarks are written with the hopes of something of interest even if it does not contain much real information:

"In less than two days we were transported from a region of snow and ice to a land of sunshine and balmy breezes. The journey from Chicago on the Dixie Flyer, was truly in regal style, the train consisting of twelve Pullmans and a diner. We woke up in old Kentucky on Thursday morning but it was not until we crossed that state and nearly through Tennessee that we left the snow line and green grass began to appear, evidently following a recent heavy rain. "Someone has truly said Florida has two crops, one of oranges and the other of northern tourists. Not the least is the latter as this year the big freeze in early February injured the fruit and killed off the flowers. It was the worst in 22 years. However, Florida is a great playground and loafing spot for those from the frozen north who can come. For instance, this town of Daytona on the east coast, has a normal population of 6,000, but in the winter has from 20,000 to 30,000 people. It puts us in mind of Waukesha in the old days when it was mostly composed of hotels, boarding houses and restaurants. That is the condition here now and every place is full.

"A cosmopolitan crowd at best and casually asking the young lady cashier at the corner drug store if the people were all from the north she said: 'All the folks here are from somewhere else. I myself am from Kentucky.' She naively told the truth. Daytona looks like a northern town transplanted. It is not only a beautiful place with all the attractions a southern climate can give, but carries an air of enterprise, thrift and cleanliness. The broad Halifax flows serenely by the city and just across the river are the beautiful suburbs of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze with magnificent hotels and one of the finest ocean beaches in the world. For automobileing on the hard sand there is a stretch of 30 miles. It was on this course Bob Barnum, the speed demon, made his famous racing record. Speaking of automobiles I never saw so many gathered from different states. A state and county license is charged, non-residents as well. The bicycle is also extensively used here not only for pleasure but business. The grocer and butcher utilizes it for delivery purposes. A basket or crate be

While it does not equal in size some of the mammoth hostels in Florida it is neat, clean and homelike and commands a fine class of trade. Burlington's veteran merchant and his good wife have been coming here off and on some twenty three years. It has become a second home to them and it goes without saying they like Daytona.

PLYMOUTH ROCK LOOKS UP AGAIN

City of the Pilgrims Preparing to Celebrate Tercentenary of Landing.

ANNIVERSARY COMES IN 1920

Little City of Plymouth Thinks It's Big Enough to Undertake Job of Fittingly Commemorating Historic Event.

Plymouth, Mass.—What a great thing will be here if all the good Americans who claim to be descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers visit this, the oldest town in New England, during the tercentenary celebration of the Landing—capital L, please—from the Mayflower! The celebration, which might commemorate also the blessing of the new world with roast turkey and pumpkin pie, will not be held, of course, until 1920. But already the usual placid minds of Plymouth's best and most prosperous citizens are perplexed by the question: How can the coming of the Pilgrims to this shore 300 years ago be celebrated in the most fitting, the most dignified and yet the most brilliant manner?

Any New England schoolboy will tell you that the Mayflower first cast anchor in Cape Cod bay, just within the cape, on November 21, 1620. This is now the splendid harbor of Provincetown, the only windward port for many a league where the little vessel that bore Miles Standish and his companions could have lain safely. Nearly all the company went ashore, glad to touch land after the long voyage. They first fell on their knees and thanked God for the preservation of their lives. The water was shallow and they had waded ashore—the men to explore the country, the women to wash their clothes.

Chose Landing Place.

The spot chosen by a party of explorers for the permanent landing place of the Mayflower's passengers was selected about December 20, 1620, and there New Plymouth was built. From about the middle of December until Christmas day the weather was stormy and the bulk of the passengers remained on the ship while some of the men built a rude shelter to receive them. On Christmas day most of the Pilgrims went on shore to visit the spot selected for their residence. Then, tradition hath it, Mary Chilton and John Alden, both young, were first to spring on Plymouth Rock from the boat that conveyed them.

Small wonder is it that, with three such central figures as Priscilla, Miles Standish and John Alden at hand, so to say, a historic pageant almost certainly will be one of the great features of the celebration.

There are some dubious ones here who feared that Plymouth is not big enough for the celebration; that the town of 14,000 people cannot do justice to the great event. It has been suggested even that Plymouth be reproduced in Boston, where there is capacity to entertain thousands of visitors, and that the ceremonies be held in The Hub. But this proposition has already been dismissed; as well remove Plymouth Rock to Boston Common.

Plymouth will be the place; Plymouth will rise to the occasion and welcome all America, if need be, to the very scene where those who risked their lives to give religious liberty disembarked. More than three years remain in which to prepare.

Capitalists stand ready to build great hotels here; already the railroads are planning for the transportation of the Pilgrims of 1920. It is arranged to transport Plymouth Rock from its bed on the shore, for only a comparatively small piece of it is visible now to the patriotic eye.

Plans were made, ideas were advanced for the tri-centennial as long as 16 years ago, when the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower descendants and the Pilgrim Memorial association interested themselves in the project. But there is no need for those who love to tread historic ground and to offer the tribute of their presence to the forefathers to delay their visit to Plymouth.

A "Live" Town.

Old as it is, this is a "live" and beautiful town, closely dotted with places of interest. As a shipping port it is second to Boston, in Massachusetts. It manufactures products worth more than $15,000,000 each year. Here you may see the national monument to the forefathers and that to Miles Standish; the site of the Common house on Dayen street, the first house to be built, the first street to be laid out in New England; the courthouse of severely classic colonial architecture; the famous Pilgrim hall, with its great collection of relics of the Pilgrims; Charles Ruggie; Old Burial hill, the burial place of many of the first settlers; and Pilgrim wharf and Bawtry Island, where the Pilgrims passed their first Sabbath.

Fugitive Lives in Coal Mine.
